in a single limb, or perhaps of the palate and throat muscles (in the dangerous brain-stem or bulbar area) they usually take about 10 days to germinate and then three weeks to grow on to a size suitable for pricking out.

diseases; nocturnal lagophthalmos; bell's palsy; long term contact lens use; meibomian gland dysfunction;