as an example, if you are caught with a minimum of four grams of oxycontin, that would be a felony charge in trafficking.

it develops, markets and sells practice management systems, including hardware and software, and services. with people like you giving without restraint what most of us would have sold for an e-book in making.